Glare Control Glasses and Other Helpful Devices for the Vision Impaired

Presented by Debbie and Murphy Kogler of Magnifiers and More

Please join us. Our shared experiences in dealing with macular degeneration can make us stronger. Together many good things are possible. Please feel free to come to any and all of our meetings.

Retina Associates of Cleveland and the Macula Vision Research Foundation (MVRF) SupportSight Cleveland have joined together to sponsor SupportSight, the national series of educational seminars and regional support group meetings for people with or people who would like to learn more about macular degeneration. Healthcare research has shown that support groups can be very helpful. Please come to any or all of our meetings in five convenient locations. Each meeting will be from 10:00 AM to 12 noon.
